

Sandy Griffith

Gifted with a strong, rich, and soulful voice, this sultry Northern California native can move the soul of the audience with her emotional energy and angelic-like presence.

Sandy has been a consistent request by many major industry performers. Her impressive talent credits can be researched with many top recording artists such as Whitney Houston, Mariah Carey, Celine Dion, Aretha Franklin, Elton John, Al Jarreau, Howard Hewitt, Patti Austin, Oleta Adams and Regina Belle as a start. Not to mention her large tour resume featuring Boz Scaggs, Huey Lewis and the News, Kenny Loggins, Howard Hewitt and Jonathan Butler.

Recently, Sandy completed the 2006 soundtrack for "Rent" the movie, and is a featured performer at Harry Denton's Starlight Room in San Francisco. This three-time Star Search winner reflects on her large performance history and sets her goals for her biggest performance to date... launching her solo career. Sandy feels her experience has seasoned her as a strong vocalist and performer and is excited about her amazing future endeavors for the coming years.
